

Australia and New Zealand Police Games Federation LIFE MEMBERS

Life membership, the highest honour an organisation can bestow upon a member. The ANZPGF Life Membership club is an exclusive group of 8 people who have contributed an enormous amount individually, and collectively to the ANZPGF. Indeed, a number of these people are still actively involved such is their commitment, and value to the ANZPGF. Below is a list of these members and a summary of the criteria against their contributions have been measured.

ANZPGF Life Membership Criteria

1. Length of active membership

(a) To have contributed to the Federation to the degree necessary for Life Membership, a nominee must have been an executive Member and involved for a significant time. A minimum period of service of 10 years' is an indicator of a long-term commitment.

2. Positions held and length of time

(a) The nominee should be able to demonstrate a significant contribution to the running of the Federation, over many of those years of membership. This may include:

- (i). Significant contributions while holding positions on the Federation Board as a Director or Delegate.
- (ii). Making significant contributions in national roles on behalf of the Federation.
- (iii). Multiple active roles benefitting the Federation over a long period of time are the most obvious indicators of outstanding service to the Federation, deserving of Life Membership.

3. History of organising roles

(a) The nominee should be able to demonstrate active contribution to the core activity of the Federation – It would be expected that a Life Member would normally have contributed significantly to the objective of the Federation.
